Governor Mann will, some time be fore the convening of the next General Assembly, appoint a commission that will journey west to San Diego, Cal., to examine into the advisability of into examine into the advisability of in-stalling a Virginia exhibit at the Pan-ama-California Exposition, which will open in that city on January 1, 1915. A statement to this effect was made yesteriay by W. Jefferson Davis, rep-resenting the exposition, after a con-ference with the Governor at the Caultol.

Governor Mann, said Mr. Davis, expressed his hearty approval of the pro-ject, and thought that a Virginia ex-hibit at the South California exposi-tion would be a good myestment. The fact that the San Diego Exposition will attract a strong representation from the Latin-American countries, which will become natural markets for many Virginia products upon the opening of the Panama Canal, thought Governor Mann, should make a Virginia display of prime advertising value

Auditor Makes Ready for Annual Meetings of Local Pension Boards.

Blanks for the annual correction of pension rolls were sent out yesterday from the office of the Auditor of Pub-lic Accounts to the city and county from the bluce of the city and county lie Accounts to the city and county pension boards throughout the State. It is the duty of these bodies to meet February 15 at their respective courthouses.

The papers contain reports of the names of pensioners for 1912 and the sums paid them. The ligs will be local the local State Main Street. Richmond, Va., on WEDNESDAY, February 19, at 12 o'clock. GEORGE W. RADY, Sccretary.

carefully scrutinized by the local boards, which will strike off those who have died, those who have left the State and any others who it may be found were improperly on the rolls. The lists are then returned to Auditor for use in paying the 1913 pen-

Should there be new names to add, the applications must come in on the regular forms, and be passed upon after proof has been adduced as reality and the pro serters apply for pensions. Sometimes local boards do not know the faks, and they come out when the pension clerk applies, under the law, to the Secretary of Virginia Military Records for information regarding the applicant.

Pensioners under the act of 1888, when the State established pensions, are now dying rapidly. These are the men who were disabled from wounds, this being the class first aided. Many applications continue to come in, not only from widows, but from veterans under later acts, including many who enlisted at an early age, and have now reached the time of life when self-support is difficult.

U. S. Circuit Court of Appeals.

The United States Circuit Court of Appeals reconvened yesterday morning at 11 o'clock, with Circuit Judge Pritchard and District Judges Boyd and Dayton in attendance. Court announced and handed down its opinion in the following cases:
